LOCAL VIDEO ON HOLSTONTV

Educational, charity, and literary 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations, civic league and social welfare 501(c)(4) organizations, 501(c)(6) chambers of commerce, schools and governmental entities may submit community video footage to be aired on Channel 17 of HolstonTV free of charge.

Upon request, HolstonConnect reserves the right to request of copy of the organization’s certification, charter, or tax exemption to provide evidence of meeting the above criteria.

Content may include High School and Middle School sporting events, plays, and performances, County Commission meetings, BMA Meetings, Church Services, Civic Club Videos, Hobby Club Videos, and more. All form submissions must be received. Video content will be aired at the dates and times as determined by HolstonConnect, LLC. Those submitting video must be an authorized agent of the organization to do so.

HolstonConnect assumes no liability for content, images or likenesses included in provided video content. The content as provided by an outside organization does not reflect or represent the views of HolstonConnect, LLC. or Holston Electric Cooperative, Inc. Protecting the privacy of children is very important to us. The Children’s Online Privacy and Protection Act of 1998 (“COPPA”) defines a “Child” as anyone under the age of 13. Holston strictly adheres to COPPA. For that reason, we do not collect or maintain information obtained through our sites from those we actually know are under 13, and we do not knowingly collect or use the personal information of minors for marketing purposes.

Please submit form to msimpson@holstonelectric.com. After review, you will receive an email with a username and password to upload your video content.

HolstonConnect may refuse to transmit information not meeting our guidelines. For additional information, contact Michelle Simpson, Director of Member Services, msimpson@holstonelectric.com.
